

RUSSELL CORPORATE ADVISORY NEWSLETTER

We are concerned about the welfare of our clients and their communities and we want to reassure you that our office is open and our experienced staff are available to assist you.

We are all facing unprecedented and uncertain times. We recognise that the hospitality industry is at the forefront of businesses impacted by newly introduced measures to prevent the spread of COVID-19. If our clients are impacted that means we are also, along with every other service provider to the hospitality sector.

The team at Russell Corporate Advisory is available to assist and answer any questions with regards to your current operations, possible temporary closure, limiting exposure and/or risk management. One of the key factors for many will be navigating through Corporations Act obligations. Our professional expertise is available to help directors make informed decisions and to ensure that risks to them and their clubs are minimised.

We understand that the size and offering of registered clubs is varied and therefore the scale of response to this crisis needs to be tailored to your Club's business.

There are many operational, financial and governance issues Clubs must consider in this unprecedented time.

If your Club requires advice or is considering a possible temporary closure or if you believe your Club may be in a cash crisis or potentially insolvent, please do not hesitate to contact us on 02 9957 6700 for a no obligation confidential chat about your Club's circumstances. If you would like us to contact you please email Greg Russell, greg.russell@russellcorporate.com.au
